Send Me Your Address in Heaven
Written by John Bailes

1. A boy was writing his sweetheart,
She lived in the valley below,
Saying your last love letter,
Came more than three weeks ago,
He didn’t receive no answer,
He went down to her home that day,
And found she’d been taken to heaven,
And this is what he did say.

chorus: Send me your address from heaven,
So I can write you up there,
Tell me that you still love me,
Tell me that you still care,
Mail it on the golden street corner,
As you did on earth here below,
Send me your address from heaven,
So I can write you up there.

2. He never could forget her,
He'd sit all alone and cry,
He wanted to reach her somehow,
He'd stare at the sky with a sigh,
If only you'd answer my letters,
I know I would see you someday,
I'll always love you my darlin',
And we'll be together one day,
