That's How I Can Count on You
Written by Shorty Long & Bob Newman

1. Like April can count on the showers,
   The grass can count on the dew,
   And March can count on the wind, wind, windy days,
   Well that's how I can count on you.

2. If the road looks long and endless,
   With nothing but heartbreak in view,
   I'll smile all the while for I'll, I'll, I'll,
   Know that I can always count on you.

bridge: If fame and fortune should pass me by,
   Though a beggar, I stand alone,
   A king in his kingdom could never find,
   A love as true as the love we've have known.

3. Like a baby can count on his mother,
   When the day is all through,
   And lovers can count on the moon, moon, moon,
   Well that's how I can count on you.

coda: And lovers can count on the moon, moon, silvery moon,
   Well that's how I can count on you.
